Rom 6:6-14; 1 Cor 1:28-31; Eph 2:8-10

words & music: Glen Jones

| C F | G | Am G | F
We cannot boast save in the death and resurrection of our Lord

| C F | G
Whose precious blood was spilt for us,

| Am G | C
The great redeeming sacrifice

| F G | C | F G | Am
For us the Lamb was slain to redeem us back to Him

| F G | C | F G | C
This is the sinner's claim "In Jesus Christ I live and reign"

| C F | G | Am G | F
No longer held by chains of sin, no longer subject to its claim

| C F | G | Am G | C
In Jesus Christ my heart is free to follow Him and Him alone

| F G | C | F G | Am
My body now is His, my life I live for Him

| F G | C | F G | C
This is the sinner's claim "In Jesus Christ I live and reign"

| G | Am | F | C
Hallelujah, Hallelujah to the Lamb that was slain

| G | Am | F G | C
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, in Jesus Christ I live and reign

| C F | G | Am G | F
And now my life is found in Him, all the past and still to come

| C F | G | Am G | C
There is not an aspect of my life that He cannot redeem

| F G | C | F G | Am
My hopes and all my dreams, my plans and family

| F G | C | F G | C
Are all now subject to the reign of Jesus Christ my Lord
